Maggie McGrath: Maggie McGrath is the founder of Sonoran Senior Solutions and President of NPRA Tucson. She leads with a commitment to ethical placement, cross-sector collaboration, and client-centered care. Her work is driven by lived experience—navigating crisis without a roadmap—and a belief that senior care should be more human, transparent, and accessible. Maggie is known for connecting people, resources, and ideas to raise the standard of care in Southern Arizona and beyond.

Margaret Tripp: Margaret is an Employee Benefits Advisor who helps employers design meaningful benefits strategies that support today's evolving workforce. She is especially focused on guiding organizations in supporting employees in the "sandwich generation," balancing caregiving responsibilities across multiple generations.

Sharon Northern: Sharon Northern is currently the Chief HR Officer for a non-profit behavioral health agency headquartered in Tucson, with locations across Arizona. Sharon's 23+ year background in Human Resources has included public, private equity, and non-profit organizations as well as multi-state, multi-site locations, and industries across a diverse spectrum. Sharon has had responsibility and oversight of HR strategy and operations, workforce and talent development, benefits and compensation, employee relations, legal, compliance and diversity, equity, and inclusion. Sharon is also the author of Her Voice magazine - celebrating and honoring women who lead, build and uplift others without the benefit of fancy titles, platforms, or publicists.
